Flying Toys versus Hobby-Grade Items, and where they are available Locally

Toy indoor R/C airplanes and helicopters can be purchased widely for prices up to about $70. The advantage: low price. The disadvantages: fewer control functions, lower flight performance, no spare parts, and little or no adjustments or repairs are possible. Hobby-grade indoor R/C airplanes and helicopters are available at these three great local hobby shops:

E-Mergent RC Heli
Tommy Whitaker, Owner
2118 Highway 72 E, Huntsville, AL 35811

Hobby Town USA
